

READ FIRST!!! This resource is intended to provide an overview of training and traineeship opportunities available to speech-language pathologists in the area of fluency disorders, including webinars, eCourses, podcasts, blogs, and more!

Spero Stuttering, Inc. does not endorse any particular CEU provider or organization listed, and we cannot guarantee the quality of information provided. This listing is simply a guide to help SLPs quickly access available resources, however, we value current and evidence-based resources. Listings appear in alphabetical order under each given category. Brief descriptions of each listing were taken from their respective websites.

CEU & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

American Institute for Stuttering

<https://stutteringtreatment.org/professional-training/>

Offer a range of services including early intervention for children as young as two years, individual therapy for children and adults, specialty group workshops, a weekly practice and support group, and week-long immersion programs that run throughout the year.

Camp Shout Out

<https://campshoutout.org/>

A residential, interactive therapeutic experience in a traditional summer camp environment. A hands-on, unique continuing education training opportunity with a Leadership Team directed by Board Certified Specialists in Fluency.

FRIENDS The National Association of Young People Who Stutter

<http://friendswhostutter.org/>

Dedicated to providing support and education to young people who stutter, their families, and professionals, through annual conferences, one-day workshops, and outreach. To help build a world in which all young people who stutter feel empowered to communicate whenever, wherever, and however they want to.

Lang Stuttering Institute Future Fluency Specialists

<https://moody.utexas.edu/centers/lang-stuttering-institute/our-programs>

Program provides undergraduate and graduate students as well as practicing clinicians with the opportunity to observe and assist speech-language pathologists in their provision of best practice to children and adults who stutter.

Medbridge

<https://www.medbridgeeducation.com/speech-language-pathology/>

Help speech pathologists improve lives. Advance skills, earn CEUs, motivate clients, and drive behavior change with evidence-based continuing education and client engagement built specifically for the challenges SLPs face.

National Stuttering Association

<https://westutter.org/>

Dedicated to bringing hope and empowerment to children and adults who stutter, their families, and professionals, through support, education, advocacy, and research.

Northern Speech Services

<https://www.northernspeech.com/>

To support SLPs in all settings and every situation, from Therapy Materials to Online Courses for #PedSLPs and #MedSLPs.

PESI, Inc.

<https://www.pesi.com/>

To promote and facilitate continuing education excellence. A provider of continuing education by numerous national agencies and routinely applies for continuing education credits for professionals from state agencies on an as needed basis, when required.

SpeechPathology.com

<https://www.speechpathology.com/>

Access 450+ evidence-based online CEU courses in over 30 topic areas and become a lifelong learner. Learn from industry-leading experts and expand areas of expertise.

SpeechTherapyPD.com

<http://www.speechtherapydp.com/>

Serve speech-language pathologists and SLPAs worldwide by providing meaningful learning opportunities and continuing education experiences that inspire clinicians and enhance therapy on a holistic level.

The Stuttering Foundation

<https://www.stutteringhelp.org/>

The Stuttering Foundation provides free online resources, services and support to those who stutter and their families, as well as support for research into the causes of stuttering.

Transcending Stuttering

<https://www.schneiderspeech.com/tsa>

Self-guided online learning, cohort-based courses for SLPs (ASHA CEUs) and for people who stutter.

WHEN I STUTTER (Film)

<https://whenistutter.org/> and

<https://whenistutter.org/store/ceu-opportunity/> for

CEUs in California and Arizona

A proven educational and transformative experience. A powerful educational tool for anyone who wants to learn more about stuttering, renew their understanding of it and learn about the humanity that exists within people who stutter.

OTHER RESOURCES

American Board of Fluency and Fluency Disorders

<https://www.stutteringspecialists.org/>

Board Certified Specialists in Fluency are individuals who hold their Certificate of Clinical Competence (CCC) awarded by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association and have demonstrated a high level of knowledge and clinical expertise in diagnosing and treating individuals with fluency disorders.

American Speech-Language-Hearing Association ASHAWire

<https://leader.pubs.asha.org/>

Collection of resources from across ASHA publications.

Fluency Bank

<https://fluency.talkbank.org/>

FluencyBank is a shared database for the study of fluency development. Participants include typically-developing monolingual and bilingual children, children and adults who stutter or clutter, and second language learners. Researchers and clinicians studying fluency may request to join the consortium.

International Stuttering Awareness Online Conference

<https://isad.isastutter.org/>

The conference runs from October 1 until October 22, International Stuttering Awareness Day. The conference features stories and experiences with stuttering by people who stutter; research, therapy, and support articles; and creative expression pieces from all over the world.

My Beautiful Stutter (Film)

<https://www.mybeautifulstutter.com/>

Documentary that follows five kids who stutter, ages 9 to 18, from all over the United States and all walks of life, who, after experiencing a lifetime of bullying and stigmatization, meet other children who stutter at an interactive arts-based program, The Stuttering Association for the Young, based in New York City.

Spero Stuttering, Inc.

<https://www.sperostuttering.org/>

Provides stipends for continuing education and traineeships, scholarships for research related to fluency disorders, and awards Ally of Stuttering™ SLP seal for additional training and experiential learning.

Stuttering Therapy Resources

<https://www.stutteringtherapyresources.com/>

A specialty publishing company dedicated to helping speech-language pathologists increase their confidence in working with people who stutter. Resources filled with real-world, practical ideas that SLPs can use immediately to help people who stutter and their families overcome the burden of stuttering.

The Informed SLP

<https://www.theinformedslp.com/>

Help SLPs know the research in a way that's friendly, realistic, and efficient! They search all the top speech-language pathology journals each month, looking for articles that are immediately relevant to daily practice, then reduce that research down to plain-language reviews of only the most clinically applicable pieces, available in web, print, or audio formats.

The Stuttering Homepage

<https://www.mnsu.edu/comdis/kuster/stutter.html>

Dedicated to providing information about stuttering and other fluency disorders for both consumers and professionals who work with people who stutter. It includes information about research, therapy, support organizations, resources for professors who teach fluency disorders courses, materials for kids who stutter, and much more.

The Way We Talk (Film)

<https://www.thewaywetalk.org/>

A personal documentary intimately centered around a support group for people who stutter on their journey toward self-acceptance. As Michael Turner confronts his own stuttering, he reflects on how the way he talks has shaped his identity and his family story.

BLOGS, PODCASTS, “LIVE” CONVERSATIONS, & YOUTUBE RESOURCES

Bilingualistics

<https://bilingualistics.com/speech-therapy-blog/>

Speech therapy blog for parent support, speech therapy materials, assessment knowledge, and CEU opportunities. We have summarized research in digestible, usable bullets.

Make Room for the Stuttering

<https://stutterrockstar.com/>

Blog and podcasts featuring women who stutter.

OPEN STUTTER with Vivian Sisskin

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCQqFsx4N34aKbKxcuGfDaVg>

Stories about stuttering openly and honestly, change, self-acceptance, and advocacy; usable for teaching and therapy.

SLP Nerdcast

<https://www.slpnerdcast.com/>

A podcast for busy SLPs and teachers who need continuing education or ASHA professional development credits.

Stuttering is Cool

<http://stutteringiscool.com/stuttering-is-cool-podcast/>

Daniele Rossi offers encouragement and methods on how to manage stuttering. He interviews other people who stutter, reports on what's happening in the stuttering community around the world, the latest on stuttering research and therapy, and takes you behind the scenes in the creation of his Franky Banky comics.

Stuttering Therapy Resources

<https://www.stutteringtherapyresources.com/blogs/blog>

Practical Thoughts Blog on all things stuttering.

StutterTalk

<https://stuttertalk.com/>

Changing how you think about stuttering...one podcast at a time. The first and longest running podcast on stuttering, having published more than 700 podcasts which are heard in 180 countries.

The Stuttering Foundation

<https://www.stutteringhelp.org/online-podcasts>

Podcasts on The King's Speech, remembering Malcom Fraser, with Dr. Dennis Drayna, Bob Love, Mel Tillis and more!

The Tim Mackesey Podcast & YouTube Channel

<https://anchor.fm/tim-mackesey> and <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCgi95LpHfnbOoGZYoBqe4tg>

Tim Mackesey is a specialist who offers stuttering help and treatment guidance on a variety of topics. He has more than 25 years experience helping people who stutter.

Transcending Stuttering Podcast

<https://www.schneiderspeech.com/podcasts>

Weekly conversations with key individuals on various topics related to stuttering.